

Proclamation

Borough of Middletown, PA

Whereas, Middletown has a well established history of athletic accomplishment; and

Whereas, residents of Middletown provide unwavering support and admiration for all athletic programs; and

Whereas, Middletown's basketball program, in particular, has a history steeped in success; and

Whereas, Middletown's current men's and women's basketball teams are comprised of talented student-athletes with bright futures; and

Whereas, residents of Middletown have a deep appreciation for history and tradition; and

Whereas, March marks the month of the NCAA basketball tournament, otherwise known as "March Madness"; and

Whereas, despite severely sprained ankles, hurt prides, and obligatory trash talk, the Mayoral Vetoes utterly destroyed the Middletown Blue Raiders in 2018, thereby tying the series 2-2

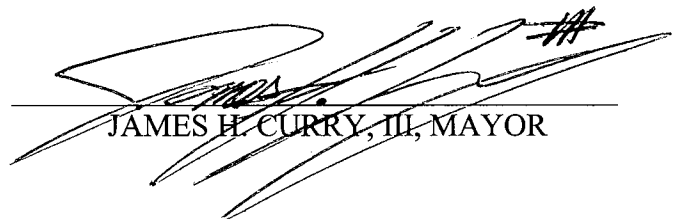

Now, therefore, be it proclaimed that I, James H. Curry III, Mayor of the Borough of Middletown, County of Dauphin, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, hereby declare Friday, March 29, 2019 as in the Borough of Middletown and challenge the Middletown varsity basketball players to a benefit game to be held at the Middletown Area High School Gymnasium at 8:00 p.m.

The traveling trophy will be presented to the winning team, which will be housed at the Middletown Area High School or Middletown Borough Hall until the following year.

Dated in Middletown, Pennsylvania, this 19th day of February 2019.

JAMES H. CURRY, III, MAYOR
